The North East Historical Society presents the history of the Millerton National Bank 1882 to 1970. This is a program about its history and Gilded Moon's adaptive reuse of the bank's last home.

A slide program, featuring old photos and documents, spans over 88 years of local history. Hear some interesting bank stories and anecdotes by John Hicks, followed by a question and answer session.

After the slide show, meet Jill and Paul Choma, owners of Gilded Moon Framing. Hear their interesting account of the purchase and renovation of the building and its reuse as an art gallery. Visit the building, tour the gallery and enjoy refreshments in the garden.
